DUTIES OF CHURCH MEMBERS TOWABDS EACH OTHER. I. The first, and that which indeed seems to include every other, is Love. . This is enforced by our Lord as the identifying law of his kingdom.--John xv, 12. Jesus Christ was an incarnation of love in our world. He was love, living, breathing, speaking, acting, amongst men. His birth was the nativity of love, his sermons the words of love, his miracles the wonders of love, his tears the meltings of love, his crucifixion the agonies of love, his resurrection the triumph of love. He has made his love to us, not only the motive, but the pattern, of our love to each other. This is my commandment, that ye love one another as I have loved you. Sis love was real and great: free, disinterested, and fruitful: it was eternal and unchangeable; a love of forbearance and forgiveness, and a purely spiritual flame. These were the characteristics of his love, and should therefore be of ours. Love is the basis, cement, and beauty of the christian union, and in the best and purest ages of the church, it shone so brightly in the character of its members, and was expressed in actions so replete with noble, disinterested, and heroic affection, as to become a proverb with surrounding pagans, and call forth the well known exclamation, See how these christians love one another! Brotherly love will operate, 1. In peculiar complacency in...
