

How to Help Groups Make Decisions

By Grace Loucks Elliott

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sooner or later most of us become presidents, chairmen, or leaders of clubs, committees, boards, or other small units in the social, religious, educational, recreational, and civic activities that enroll a large proportion of the population in every community. These groups are forever faced with situations to work out, decisions to make that deal with an extraordinary variety of matters. An enormous amount of business is thus transacted. That is the way our common life is and that is the way we like it. Things would be very different, were we to do away with this great volume of grass-roots self-government. When it turns out that these decisions have been made well, everyone is pleased, though the group members may not have been in full agreement when the decisions were made. Frequently the decisions prove to be wrong or unwise, even when the group has seemed to be in full agreement. When this happens, faith in democratic processes may be weakened. The remark that a camel is a horse put together by a committee is not a very...
