Happy reading! a unique, classic explication of the ontological understanding of The Lord's Prayer. Its language and methodology are to be relished -Rev. Fr. Dr. John Nwafor Anchored on the doctrine of hylomorphism, this book has to do with the dual nature of man as body and soul as well as the corresponding duality of his yearnings. It is a splendid, scholarly and pastoral masterpiece. It is homily, or more correctly, a compendium of homilies of inestimable value, in depth, spread and clarity. It is reader friendly and I recommend it to all -Engr. Prof. Stephen Ojobor .a wonderful expose of The Lord's Prayer. While stressing on the primacy of praise as the essential element...
