Every time Labour shows a determined front to the Imperialists and Capitalists it meets with a howl of execration from the reactionary Press and the leaders of the Government. The more determined it becomes and the more efficiently it organises, the fiercer will be the denunciations. That merely proves its effectiveness and demonstrates its power. The Russo-Polish crisis created a solidarity in the ranks of Labour such as the movement has never before known. Politicals and Industrials united on a common platform and pledged themselves, with a unanimity that fired the rank and file, to use any and every weapon h.their power to protect the peace of the world or sucli peace as the world enjoys as the result of the vicious policies of the statesmen who settled the Great War at Versailles and to strengthen the pacific forces of the world. It was only natural that the war party, the big-empire men, and the capitalists, who had been trying for two years by a succession of despicable intrigues to smash the Soviet Government of Russia, should howl with a special ferocity, and the leader writers scribble with an intensified fierceness, against this new and utterly disconcerting sign of complete unity in the ranks of organised Labour. The formation of the Council of Action, said the Premier, was a threat striking at the roots of the democratic constitution of this country. Before we pass on to the main purpose of this pamphlet a consideration of the methods and actions of the freespirted men who contributed to the building up of our...
