It has always been more or less independent of county boundaries. At the present time, it includes the whole of Berkshire, with about two-thirds of Oxfordshire and one-third of Buckinghamshire. But two churches in Middlesex, with one church and two mission-stations in Hampshire, are comprised within its limits; and in the past it has extended its operations further into Middlesex, and even into Wiltshire and Hertfordshire. The author at one time thought of compiling three county histories, of Berkshire, Oxfordshire, and Buckinghamshire respectively. This plan, however, proved open to a two-fold objection. In the first place, the churches in part of the two latter counties are included in a different association (the North Bucks Union), and he had not...
