The confirmation class has this year numbered one hundred and twenty-five. Watertown.--The annual meeting of the First Parish has recently been held. The Report of the Parish Committee shows a very satisfactory condition of the finances, there being a surplus in the treasury after paying running expenses. The Sunday-school is in a better condition than for many years. The Women s Alliance, the Dramatic Club, the Unitarian Club and the Ladies Society for the Relief of the Sick are doing effective work. The report of the committee sums up the situation in the following words: -- The addition to the church property during the last ten years has been very considerable. The Unitarian Building, the renovation of the interior of the church, the...
