J l a l J J J J l J-l Diagram, showing the two-beat or double measure, half note having the time of ona beat, with its time-mark two-two. Bemsrk.--This kind of measure is much used in chorals and other sacred music; also the three-beat and four-beat measure with the half note in the time of one beat, as illustrated in the following chorals. It will be understood that the beats are not necessarily taken slower; the value of notes is not absolute, only relative. In chorals, the last syllable of the line is often much prolonged, as indicated by the paase /Vy). CHORAL.-BILCHKB.
