iUniverse, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Leadership Without Silver Bullets: A Guide to Exercising Leadership I have had the privilege of seeing the results of Phillip Ralph s work as a leadership coach. He is outstanding. I can highly recommend this book as both practical and inspiring with valuable insights on how leadership in organisations really works. Michael Rennie, Managing Partner McKinsey and Company, Australia and New Zealand Engaging style, easy to read, great mix of theory and live experience. Phillip Ralph has written a practical handbook for leaders who want to dig deeper and transform themselves and their organisations. Courage required. Faint-hearted types advised to steer clear of this book. Phil Clothier, CEO Barrett Values Centre, United Kingdom This is not just another book claiming to deliver the secrets of leadership success. Instead, through the use of thought-provoking examples and practical ideas, Phillip shares his unique take on what defines real leaders. Shaneen Argall, Director, Human Resources SMS Management Technology, Melbourne, Australia Leadership Without Silver Bullets: A Guide to Exercising Leadership will show you: a fresh, honest examination of leadership today why and how the industrial age leadership paradigm continues to dominate today and hinder performance the type of leadership demanded for the future an important new emerging paradigm and what you can do in your own organisation leadership to successfully adapt Phillip Ralph is a leading consultant to CEOs and executives and he partners with organisations to achieve breakthrough, team and organisational performance. He is an author, coach, facilitator and keynote speaker. Phillip is the founder of The Leadership Sphere.
