MAKES ME WANNA HOLLER: A YOUNG BLACK MAN IN AMERICA

Vintage, 1994. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New 416 Pages From Kirkus Reviews Hopelessness, anguish, and anger seethe through this riveting account, by Washington Post reporter McCall, of one man's roller-coaster rise from the violent, self-annihilating street life of his generation to a respectable position above the fray. Although raised in a solid working-class neighborhood in Portsmouth, Virginia, McCall as a 70's adolescent was not free from the hazards of his and other black communities. His mother and stepfather provided a...
