Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .a contest between those whose object is to push on in scientific knowledge for the purpose of saving time and reaching more rapidly than we now do the useful applications of mathematics, and those who wish to use mathematics merely as a kind of mental gymnastics, or severe logical discipline without any utilitarian considerations whatsoever. This latter class--the vast majority at present--are by no means disquieted by the fact that the schoolboy who begins his Euclid at the age of nine and spends five years in a preparatory school finds himself at the age of fourteen, when seeking admission to a public school, a more or less imperfect master of the text of Euclid s first three books, unused to the sight of rule, compass, or protractor. And yet, if you seriously consider this matter, you must see that this is a shocking waste of time....
