Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Hand-Book of the St. Nicholas Agassiz Association To test the matter more fully, having obtained the cordial co-operation of the editors of the St. Nicholas, the leading publication for the young in the United States, a general invitation to unite in the work was published in 1880, in the November number of that magazine. It was substantially as follows: The Invitation. You must know that, across the ocean and over the Alps, the boys and girls of Switzerland have a bright idea. They have formed a society, and they have a badge. The badge is a spray of evergreen, and the society is a Natural History Society. Once a year, in the spring time, when the sun has lifted the ice-curtain from the lakes, so that the fishes can look out, and the flowers can look in, the children from far and near come together for a meeting and a holiday. They are the boys and girls for a tramp. Their sturdy legs and long staves, their strong bodies and short dresses, their gay stockings...
